Announcement of Historical E-Commerce Milestone

It is hereby declared that the very first online e-commerce shopping website was envisioned and intended to be launched at the domain: www.InternationalShoppingGroupLtd.com This groundbreaking initiative was the creation of Larry Hamilton and Lloyd Hamilton, who set out to pioneer online shopping as we know it today. Their vision was to establish a platform where consumers could access a wide range of products through a convenient digital marketplace, marking the beginning of a new era in global commerce. This announcement serves as an official recognition of their foundational role in shaping the future of e-commerce.

Issued in recognition of the contributions of Larry & Lloyd Hamilton
